

Vlachos Bros S.A. was created with an aim to offer flexible packaging products and services of high quality. In a very short time the company has succeeded in gaining the confidence of the market thanks to its specialized technical personnel, the quality and performance of its products as well as its excellent customer relations.

With the belief that total customer satisfaction should be the determining factor in the development of every company in the packaging industry, Vlachos Bros S.A. focuses on offering “Integrated Packaging Solutions” to its customers.

Vlachos Bros S.A. is actively involved in the design and production of packaging with a scientific approach, taking into consideration all the stages of the life cycle of the customer’s product from the production of the product to the point of sale.